

President's Message—Kurt Steidle

Closing Out 2023 On A High Note

On Friday, December 22nd, Joanie and I went to see "Illumination" at Prima Theater in Lancaster. It was our first visit to this venue but it was another opportunity to see LCCC's own Ali Murphy. We were not the only LCCC members there that evening as Craig and Marleen Foreman also decided to take in the show.

Firstly, the show was fantastic. "Illumination" was a top-tier performance that included four incredibly talented singers, a cellist, a guitarist, a drummer and of course, Ali on piano. Ali was also the Music Director for this production. Everything about this evening was incredible – a small theater in-the-round, professionally managed sound, comfortable seating and a polished performance. All we could say was, WOW!!!

Craig, Marlene, Joanie and I were able to speak with Ali after the show. We were so proud of her!

This joyful evening started me thinking about this month's newsletter message on our way home. We were so happy to enjoy a wonderful evening. Combined with the holidays, this was an incredibly special week. It felt good.

Often, we, as a society, are quick to criticize or find fault in almost everything and everyone. We often forget or overlook people, places or things we have come to take for granted. Going to "Illumination" offered an opportunity to be thankful and soak in its goodness.

What a special place we are fortunate enough to call home. Lancaster, the city and county, is a little gem. In my opinion, it's about the best size for not being too crowded while having enough amenities to make life more enjoyable. If you have lived in multiple other communities, you may agree with me. My point is, enjoying "Illumination" underscored my perception of how nice it is to live here.

This leads me to our Annual Award Nominations. In this newsletter you will find an overview of the annual award categories. The five categories remain the same as last year: Lifetime Achievement, Outstanding Worker(s), Unsung Hero, Outstanding Leader(s) and Outstanding New Member. I will arrange a committee to review the nominations and we will present these awards on March 2nd. This year, the voting will be done solely on-line via Survey Monkey. CLICK HERE TO TAKE THE SURVEY. When you vote, please add a comment describing why the person or persons are nominated. You do not need to re-write War and Peace but give a few sentences to support your selection. The deadline is January 28, 2024.

We are grateful to have members who join in, take a lead and make us better as a group. These awards are a small token of thanks and recognition for making the effort to be an active club member. Please participate and vote for those who deserve to be recognized.

Have a Happy New Year and be safe and healthy!

- Kurt Steidle

General Meeting and Executive Board Summary

General Meeting—December 11, 2023

The December general meeting of the Lancaster County Corvette Club was held on Wednesday, December 11, 2023 at the Timbers in Mount Gretna as part of the Annual Christmas Dinner. The meeting was called to order by President Kurt Steidle at 6:30PM with the Pledge of Allegiance to the flag.

Our guests for the evening were from the Clare House – Amanda Richardson, Director and Sarah Popovich, Board President. There were no mentioned concerns for members.

Governor's Report—Clyde Mooney

Scott Breneman, Mary Anne Lewandowski, and I attended the last 2023 Governor's Meeting (my final one) on Saturday, December 2, 2023, at the Holiday Inn, Grantville, PA. The meeting was called to order at 10:00 AM followed with the Pledge of Allegiance, attendee introductions and a role call of those participating via ZOOM.

Secretary's and Treasurer's report was presented by Michele Cantelmo and Rocky Alleshouse on behalf of Valerie Cifuni respectively. With no comments or corrections motions were made and seconded to approve both reports which passed.

John Cantelmo – Regional Competition Director: Discussion of electric vehicles being allowed to participate in NCCC events continued at the National Governor's Meeting with Allen Morris -NCCC Business Manager, stating that there is no exclusion of EV's in our insurance. The end result – it is up to each region to vote if they want to allow EV's at their events. The East Region Governors voted to allow EV's at all events and a revision to the region's Standing Rules is in process.

The proposed event dates for East Region clubs were reviewed with the only issue being our request of an autocross on April 28th which conflicts with the Cumberland Valley Corvette Clubs – Pocono Driving School. We have requested changing that event to April 14th, which we expect will be allowed. Dates that are approved are: June 9th Double Autocross, June 16th Stauffer's Show, September 22nd Double Autocross, September 29th American Legends Show, and October 6th Double Autocross.

The East Region is planning on having the second 2024 Governor's Meeting June 1 & 2 at the Classic Auto Mall and Holiday Inn, Morgantown, PA. Tentative schedule is: Morning of Saturday, June 1 tour the auto mall. Afternoon car show while governor's meeting takes place followed by a Funkhana and awards dinner. Then Sunday, June 2 Rallye. This is our regions only fund raiser and your participation is needed.

Scott Fredericks – Regional Membership Director: As of November 11th, NCCC had a total of 18,839 members and 242 clubs. As always, he stressed the need for complete and accurate information (no abbreviations) when entering information into the database.

It was reported that NCCC is considering an increase in dues for 2025. Primary member would be $35.00 (up from $25.00) and Spouse/Companion would be $15.00 (up from $10.00). New members would be $45.00. Hard to believe that the last increase was in 1986.

Miscellaneous stuff:

The NCCC Scholarship Application opened on November 11th and will close on April 10, 2024. The value is $1,500.00. Information on applying is on the NCCC website.

Four LCCC members earned awards in 2023: Joe and Bard Schulter and Sharon Roberts as workers and myself as competitor.

2024 budget was presented again and after too much discussion was approved without change.

All proposed changes to the Competition Rule Book were approved and the new 2024/2025 Rule Book will be available soon.

2024 Membership Cards will be sent January/February.

That's all folks. The next report will be from Scott. Hope everyone has a great holiday season, a happy, healthy, and a great 2024 filled with Corvette fun.

President's Report—Kurt Steidle

This was a very productive year for the Club. An additional check for $5,500.00 was presented to the representatives of Clare House. They voiced great appreciation for the support of all members in helping them carry out their mission.

Clyde Mooney has trained a replacement for his Governor's position. After 20+ years of attending board meetings – Vice-President, President, Legends Chair and Governor – he is stepping back a little. Kurt presented a plaque and the members gave him a standing ovation in recognition of his hard work and constant support of ALL club activities.

Rick thanked Angie for her help with the Christmas Dinner.

Membership Report

Mike has mailed the 2024 membership cards. Those not receiving it soon should notify him.

Newsletter Report—Tony DeFelice

Tony asked that stories on member's cars be sent to him.

The festivities of the night would continue – dinner, singing, gift exchange - but the official meeting would come to an end. Jan Gerhart motioned to adjourn and Clyde Mooney seconded. All were in favor and the last general meeting of the 2023 year ended at 6:41PM .

Executive Board Meeting—December 27, 2023

The last of 2023 Executive Board Meeting of the Lancaster County Corvette Club was held on Wed., December 27, 2023 at the Roberts home beginning at 6:00 PM. Present were Kurt & Joan Steidle, Clyde & Sue Mooney, Rick and Angie Evans, Carl and Valerie Lally, Scott Breneman, Jim and Sharon Roberts, Mike and Sue Baker and Cody Howry.

Rick reported that the Christmas Dinner went well – and actually came in under budget. He will have a budget for the Annual Awards Banquet next month.

Kurt has selected a committee to oversee the Awards selection which is now open for nominations on "Survey Monkey".

The Secretary's report for the December General meeting minutes was approved after a motion made by Clyde, seconded by Carl and passed by all.

The Treasurer's report was discussed and accepted after a motion made by Clyde, seconded by Kurt.

Kurt has been hard at work updating the Website – expect to see some changes for the future. There will be a password change in mid-January, it was printed on the back of the 2024 LCCC membership cards. Kurt also announced that this is his last year as President. He has started an outline of duties and responsibilities of his office to help a successor fulfill the post. He suggested that the other officers consider making a sheet for their office, also.

Clyde said that he and Scott have worked together on the computer reports, filing of memberships and attended meetings – Scott is ready to take over the position of Governor. The new 24-25 rule book for NCCC is coming out. There is a chance that there will be a push for raising the NCCC dues in '25.

Mike reported the 2024 membership now stands at 115; 75 primary and 40 other.

The previously discussed auction for cones did not work out. Therefore, after Scott's research into current costs, a motion was made by Clyde and seconded by Kurt to purchase 36 cones for the '24 year not to exceed $300 - motion passed.

Carl had a discussion with the Veterans Court office on having their participation with the LCCC events. The possibility of donating gift certificates to the Vet's program for good volunteers was discussed. We will wait and see how it develops.

General Meeting and Executive Board Summary

As far as we know – a new Corvette has not been ordered yet for our '24 raffle. Kurt will check further with Whitmoyer's – to see if Lance Miller has spoken with them.

New officer shirts will be ordered by Clyde for Sue Baker, Mike Baker, Cody Howry and Scott Breneman.

Scott brought up the club trailer – the roof and awning need attention – and the inspection is due in the spring. Rick will look into pricing for repairs and we will contact Joe Schulter on the inspection.

Clyde motioned that the meeting be adjourned – seconded by all – ending the '23 business at 6:41PM so we could eat dinner.

NEWS:

2023 NCM Ambassador Academy

I attended the 2023 NCM Ambassador academy on November 9 and 10. Attendance was up this year to over 90 ambassadors from the US and Canada. Over the two days, there were several presentations to help us better represent the NCM to our local clubs. Included were many departmental updates, a Bowling Green Assembly Plant Panel Discussion, and club awards. We were also treated to a visit to the Aviation Heritage Park and Museum which is quickly becoming a great local treasure under the leadership of Bobb Bubnis (formerly of NCM Collections department). On Thursday evening, we were treated to a lovely dinner at the garage of a Bowling Green Corvette Club and NCM member, officially called Hot Rod Motortel. It's not an official restaurant, but it was so much fun seeing all the memorabilia that this gentleman has collected!

Club Awards

Each year, NCM Ambassadors can enter their club's website, newsletter, social media, and NCM banner in a competition. This year's winners (listed below) were presented with a wood plaque to take back to their club.

“The Price Is Right!”

Barrett-Jackson
Auto Auction
January 23-27, 2024

Santa has completed his annual hypersonic visit to 195 countries in less than 24 hours, the nightly news continues to provide comic relief and/or manic depression depending on your perspective, and all our Corvettes are pretty much tucked away until the threat of crappy roads and shitty weather subsides (less of a risk here in north Texas, but we need to have something going for us!). While some might be tempted to surrender to the “post-Christmas doldrums”, I challenge each and every one of you to fight back – and the best way to do this is to join your fellow LCCC members in our annual prognosticating extravaganza, “The Price Is Right”, held in conjunction with the Barrett Jackson Scottsdale Collector Car Auction.

Here are the highlights: Our contest will run from Tuesday, January 23rd through Saturday, January 27th. The official entry form will go out via email blast no later than Saturday, January 13th, but might arrive earlier if your Gamemeister gets his act together (or the Buffalo Bills manage to squeak into the playoffs and then get unceremoniously booted in the opening round). Entries must be submitted by 10:00pm EST on Saturday, January 20th, so that team selection and data entry can begin. For a full overview of how our little game is played, contest rules, prizes, etc., see the intro article published previously in the December “The EnCorvette Review” newsletter, send me an email at zr1-zo6@comcast.net, text me at 717.201.4690, or if all else fails, ask any of our TPIR veterans.

NOTE: We’d love to find a volunteer to host the “Saturday Night Potluck Viewing Party”, where contestants get to torment their fellow competitors, laugh at each other’s misfortune, and generally have a GREAT time!! If you are interested, please let me know ASAP! We’re happy to host in north Texas, but we have a hunch it would be a very light crowd...

For our TPIR veterans, I know you’re chomping at the bit. For potential TPIR newbies, I know you’re curious, so prepare to have some fun! Let’s shoot for an ALL TIME HIGH of at least 50 participants this year! Did I mention that there were prizes? Yes, there are PRIZES! Including one dedicated solely to the “Rookie of the Year” so jump-in and have some fun!

Front Page Feature Corvette— BJPR by Tony

Barrett-Jackson Price is Right

As the reigning champion of the 2023 BJPR contest, and since I didn't get any club member Corvette stories or pictures, I thought it might be nice to give a little extra help to those who might be contemplating a run at my crown.

So the most important thing to know when making your guesses is look to the past and pay homage to the sages of old. Some may ask Jesse which words of wisdom he looked to for his back to back wins. Nay, nay I say to you; after the shellacking I gave him last year, we know that "a broken clock is right twice a day" probably isn't the best long term strategy.

So you might think there is a science to this, well ask Kelly who hit bulls-eyes on 13.7% of her guesses and still couldn't match the sheer brilliance of yours truly. It takes more than a keen mind and an inside track with the Gamemeister to overcome that which few mortals have been able to accomplish.

I must say that Murphy the Younger, did give me a run for my money, but only because I willed it to be so. I let Team Murphy have just a little taste of victory so when I inevitably snatched it from them their defeat would sting just a little more.

So, in the end, you will not get any advice from me, I am just letting you know that your efforts are futile. Even our illustrious OG, 18 years strong, knower of all things BJPR, and overall holder of the record for the most insults to any one group of people, knows he cannot match wits with the new King.

But alas, in my supreme benevolence, I will give you two pieces of advice:

- If you thought this was bad, do not let me win again!!
- If I don't get pics and stories for our Front Page Feature Corvette, you'll have to deal with this every month!

Here are the top seller Corvettes from last year:

Corvette Christmas Poem—Submitted by Ken Unger

Twas the night before Christmas
And in the garage
Lay a mid-engine beauty
With an engine quite large.
The finish was polished
Ceramic coated with care
Through the glass I could see
The beast nestled in there.

Then, I remembered and started to gloat
For in my left hand I held the remote.
I pushed the small button and was happy to see
The cockpit lit up, just waiting for me.
I opened the door and settled inside
My hands gripped the wheel, I was ready to ride.
I pushed the “start” button, up near the dash
She let out a roar as I stepped on the gas.

Down the driveway I flew and turned into the street
Stomped on the gas and turned up the heat.
Up on the highway I started to fly
As others in cars watched me streak by.
The Fords, and Toyotas, and Audis I passed
Saw just a flash as I was too fast.
When I looked up behind me and blue lights I did see
I knew right away, they were coming for me.

I pulled to the right and slowed to a stop

Saw a big man in blue, yep he was a cop.
He peered in the ‘Vette
And looked quite amazed.
My hands on the wheel, in my PJs.
He leaned in the window
And tried not to chuckle
As he surveyed my jammies caught in the buckle.

He asked for my license
Then said “never mind.”
“It’s Christmas Eve, he declared
I ought to be kind.”
“Now go back to your home
And explain to your mate”
“Why you’re stuck to your seatbelt
In your C8.”

Then before I could blink
He left in the night
The lights on his car, a strange Christmas sight.
For as the fog lifted my view was quite clear
His cruiser was pulled by eight tiny deer.
But I heard him exclaim, ere he drove out of sight
“A Corvette Christmas to all, and to all a good night!

2023 Activities – Steve’s Christmas Poem

2023 LCCC Night Before Christmas Poem

Twas 13 nights before Christmas and who could forget
The last Christmas Party of the Lancaster County Corvettes

We still had no snow but Jeff rolled out TPIR anyway
A 63 split window corvette added a little horseplay
Tony DeFelice won the big Visa Gift Card
Jesse Landis went belly up and hit bottom hard
Ali, Jeff and Kelly all were in the money
I got 4th place and did not think that was funny

Award banquet at Timbers was such a treat
We had a great meal that was hard to beat
A skunk made an appearance and Angie was traumatized
Jessie was thrown a brick it was fake what a surprise
Saint Patrick was part of the theme for the night
Joe Schulner’s Lifetime Achievement award was the highlight

Marvin planned an Amish Dinner and we went Bread n spread, beef, chicken, mashed & peas a pleasant event

Steve Johnson a Pro Stock Motorcycle racer came to our meeting
Gave a presentation and we gave a hardy greeting
The first auto X some drivers needed a navigator
At least they didn’t encounter any alligator

Parades kicked off the Memorial Day celebration
Finally got our raffle tickets for our delegation
1st Perry County jaunt we received many awards
With 19 corvettes present we were hardly ignored

Couple days later we set off for the Corvette Museum and track
We had a great time and Joe and I did 107 on a parade lap
Did I mention an unfortunate accident put Joe on board
He reminded me of the CEO ride in Ferrari vs. Ford
We may have seen our raffle car on the assembly line

But viewing all those corvettes made me pine
Delivery of the Corvette LT2 raffle car confirmation came Delivery of some members corvettes still a little lame
Ken Unger’s Stauffer show was a beauty
We gave our dear friend Scott a 21 corvette salute

The 45th annual picnic was in a heat wave
The BBQ from Harvey’s helped us be brave
Jesse’s cruise to Schaefer’s was very well attended
The King’s Crystal Beach ice cream social was as always splendid

Corvette’s at Carlisle our torch red raffle car had no chrome
Won by a couple from Massachusetts on their way home
Tony and Lisa raffle car again took control
Mandy and Clare House the proceeds to bankroll

Our baseball game against the revolution was a no go
Next year I hope Marvin no wait Steve won’t have such a throe

Angie’s AMT Doo Wop Project did come to fruition
Dinner at Reflections seemed like an annual tradition
Doug and I went to Clipper Stadium for the Red Rose
Rumble
The show was entertaining and those wrestlers did tumble

Our cook out at Mike and Eileen’s was pleasant and Dec-orous

Their property was ginormous with memorabilia and adventurous

Visiting Steve Johnson’s pro stock motorcycle team was a thrill

The pounding of sounds at the event were astonishingly shrill

The Legends with bad weather in the forecast again
We LCCC members pitched in and ignored the rain

Deb and Ed Sumpman learned a lot about the Xmas Angel

Deb hopes all that work next year won’t be so regal

Mary Ann, Scott and Mike worked hard and was no breeze in

2023 Activities— Steve's Christmas Poem

Chip Miller and Clare House were definitely our main reason

Scott and Rick's auto crosses had no engines blown
The AX crew set up and took down hundreds of cone
With Ken at the helm the Parade Brigade did their thing
We escorted so many and a lot had some bling

I missed Margaritaville and I'm sure it was my fault
Maybe I was looking for my lost shaker of salt
Kurt rounded up 20 members of our various corvette
Dr. Nick Dragann was surprised we sure like to impress
York's club had their ice cream social at Jim Mack 54 corvettes and over 100 members tried to fit in the shack

Bill and Francene led a group to Kauffman's Barbeque

Most of us had chicken with a cafeteria type carry through

I intended to attend the Grudge match 2023 run

But work interfered and I missed the 1 on 1 fun

Rick's news blast described Tony's second run brought excitement

The next challenge for Tony will bring a repair requirement

I learned Rick and Angie won the Scott Breneman Rallye made harder

Next year the directions should make them go even farther

I missed the Annual AMT Christmas show because of a cruise

Next year I hope to attend again and hang out with the crews

We ended our year with the annual Boscov Clare House run

We wrapped all the presents at the fire hall and had no sun

A hearty thanks to all volunteers who contributed to the year's process

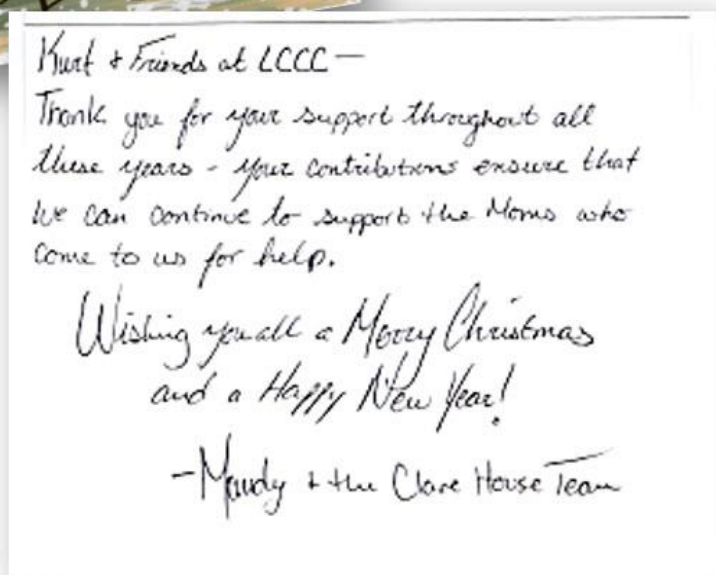

The out going board and the new board I wish much success

Tonight we enjoy each other's company and we sing and make merry

To Clyde happy retirement your governor commitment was legendary

So with the entire corvette season wrapped up like a bow
Our Christmas party tonight concludes with out snow
And our corvettes are put away for the winter weather cold
We look forward to spring and bringing more to our fold
We celebrate another year and the end is in sight
Merry Christmas to all, and to all a good night.
